

February 7, 1995 LB 270, 271

because they would comport then with the statute sections that they are referring to. With that, I'd be happy to try to answer any questions. I'd urge the adoption of the amendments.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Is there any discussion of the committee amendments? Seeing none, Senator Lindsay, do you wish to close? Closing is waived. The question before the body is the adoption of the committee amendments to LB 270. All those in favor vote aye, all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the adoption of the committee amendments.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: The committee amendments are adopted. Chair recognizes Senator Lindsay to open on the bill.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Madam President, members. On introducing the committee amendments I described what the bill does. It simply provides a mechanism, as I mentioned, and sets a fee for transcribing those judgments. I'd be happy to answer any questions about the bill, if there are any, otherwise I would urge the advancement of the bill.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Is there any discussion of LB 270? Seeing none, Senator Lindsay, do you wish to close? Closing is waived. The question before the body is the advancement of LB 270. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Have you all voted? Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 270.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: LB 270 advances. LB 271.

CLERK: LB 271, introduced by Senator Lindsay. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 10 of this year, referred to the Judiciary Committee, advanced to General File. There are committee amendments pending.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Chair recognizes Senator Lindsay to open on the committee amendments.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Madam President, members. LB 271, again, was a bill brought to me by the Supreme Court. What
